- All 50 states experienced triple-digit services export growth to China since 2007. Thirty-one states saw export growth of more than 300 percent over the period.
- In 2016, China was the top market for services exports for 18 states, and a top five market for all fifty states.
- In 2016, 15 states exported more than $1 billion in services to China in 2016. In 2007, only three states exported more than $1 billion in services to China.
- While larger states saw significant growth in services exports to China, smaller states also benefitted. Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, and South Dakota are among the states that saw some of the largest increase in services exports to China from 2007 to 2016, all with increases of at least 400 percent.

Note: Full-year services export data are available only through year-end 2016
