

China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC)

中国证券监督管理委员会

Address: 19 Focus Plaza, Jinrong Street, Xicheng District, Beijing 100033 | Phone: 86-10-8806-1000 | Website: www.csrc.gov.cn

CSRC regulates China's stocks, bonds, futures and mutual funds. The regulator is responsible for researching policies related to the securities and futures markets, controlling the issuance, trading and clearing of stocks, convertible bonds and mutual funds, approving the listing, buying and selling of corporate debts, regulating debt exchanges at the central and municipal level and overseeing the dissemination of market information concerning China's financial markets. More specifically, CSRC processes applications for asset management companies, futures companies, Sino-foreign securities joint ventures (including any initial public offering underwriters and advisors), qualified domestic institutional investor (QDII) quotas, and qualified foreign institutional investor (QFII) quotas. Additionally, the commission consults Chinese companies abroad on how to establish securities institutions and comply with international securities standards and regulations.
