

THE CHINA BUSINESS REVIEW

MARCH-APRIL 1996

VOLUME 23 NUMBER 2

TALKING TELECOM ~~TALKING TELECOM~~

IN THIS ISSUE:

New Customs Regulations

Tackling Solid Waste

China's Wild West

It isn't easy to find out how China's retail spending, trade with the US and Internet usage soared in 1995.
Now you can take a short cut.

The South China Morning Post is Hong Kong's leading English language newspaper, known for its authoritative news reporting and comprehensive Hong Kong and China business coverage.

Now, this wealth of information, including statistics, maps, charts and photographs, is condensed into the South China Morning Post CD-ROM Edition. What's more, the CD-ROM Edition is updated quarterly, cumulating into one disc at the end of each calendar year.

ESSENTIAL HONG KONG & CHINA BUSINESS TOOL.

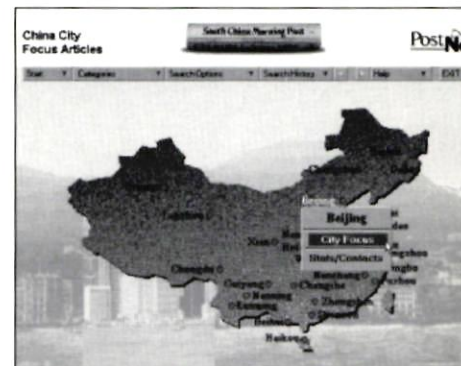

- Track company performance, industry trends and business developments.
- Follow competitors and identify market opportunities.
- Retrieve commentary from the region's leaders on government policies and the 1997 transition.

UNIQUE SEARCH CAPABILITIES SAVE TIME.

- Construct-A-Search guides you through the search process, from defining terms to executing a search.
- Every word is indexed, so all text, photos and graphics are searchable and can be accessed quickly and easily.
- Instant access to pre-searched topics: politics, Hong Kong markets, China property, personalities, companies and more.

INFORMATION PACKED FOR MAXIMUM USE.

- Over 80,000 full text articles with colour photographs, charts and graphs.
- In-depth articles on major Chinese cities plus World Bank statistics on China and Hong Kong.

