

As the General Manager (GM) of TOEFL, Omar drives the strategic direction and growth of the TOEFL iBT, using his global experience as a tech entrepreneur and executive to lead teams across various functional areas of the business.

Prior to joining ETS in 2024, Omar founded englease – an English teaching startup that serves the Middle East and Africa through synchronous online classes. Before his startup journey, Omar held various leadership roles with multinational corporations including Siemens, Nokia, and Microsoft. Omar holds an MBA from the London Business

School and is a venture partner with Antler, where he coaches and mentors up and coming tech startups.