

Biography

Jens Eskelund was born in 1970 in Aarhus, Denmark. He holds an MA in philosophy and has studied at University of Aarhus and University of Texas at Austin. He has also pursued studies in Chinese at Renmin University in Beijing. Coming to Beijing as a student in 1998, Jens Eskelund began his career in China as Commercial Officer at the Danish Embassy to China before taking on a position in marketing for Maersk Line in Beijing in 2000. Today, he serves as Chief Representative for Maersk in the Greater China Area and North-East Asia. Jens Eskelund has also served as Chairman of the Liner Shipping Working Group of the EU Chamber of Commerce (EUCCC) in China for a decade and was elected president of the EUCCC in May 2023. EUCCC is a leading business organization in China representing 1700 European companies through nine offices in the country. Jens was re-elected president of the EUCCC in May 2025.